

boutique le trou
employment opportunities:

Paid Jobs

- Sales at boutique le trou

We are looking for an experienced, excited seller who appreciates the upscale Canadian market; the designers and shoppers. You should have selling experience and we prefer you have a client list. Pay commensurate with skill set and experience. Hours: approximately 3 days per week.

Internships

*boutique le trou is currently seeking interns for the following areas:

- Merchandise: coordinate in-store merchandising, display and inventory maintenance.
- Marketing: maintain client lists, media lists and assist in organizing press releases and other print material.
- Creative: able to execute a creative concept from plan, adding your own touch.
- General store help: learn the retail operation from the ground up, including computerized POS and inventory systems, buying, mark-downs, shows and special events, and more. No selling required.